Copenhagen, July 20.

THE Squadron of Britiſh Men of War continues in the Bay of Kiog, except ſome detached Ships that are cruizing. Sir George Byng has ordered the Barfleur, Cumberland, and Shrewsbury, to ſail for England; accordingly they came to Elſinore on the 18th Inſtant, and will proceed on their Voyage home with the firſt fair Wind.

Dreſden, July 21. The Corpſe of Madame Royale, the King of Poland's Mother, has been buried at Lichtenbourg, near that of her Siſter the Electreſs-Dowager Palatine, without any Pomp, as ſhe had deſired. On the 3d the King arrived from Carelsbad at Teplitz, and on the 16th came hither. Letters from the Frontiers of Poland tell us, that Field-Marſhal Czeremetoff had received Orders from the Czar, to cauſe his Troops to march out of that Kingdom; and that he had actually marked out a Camp for their Rendezvous at Liſſa; but which Way they are deſigned to march is not yet known.

Hambourg, July 23. The King of Denmark having left Copenhagen on the 10th Inſtant, paſſed from Odenſee in Fuhnen to Coldingen in Jutland, and is reviewing his Troops in that Country, after which his Majeſty will go into Holſtein. We have certain Advice from Mecklenbourg, that the Ruſſian Troops which have for ſeveral Months been quartered in that Dutchy, (except ſome which are left for a Guard to the Dutcheſs) put themſelves in Motion on the 20th Inſtant, Part by Sea the reſt by Land, for Poland, whence they are to proceed to Muſcovy. The Ruſſian Gallies, with the Forces on Board them, have already paſſed by Stralſund, and 'tis reckoned are now as far as Colberg; the Troops which go by Land, are to march in two Columns, one by Guſtraw and Plauen, the other by Malchin.

Paris, July 28. The Duke of Chartres having obtained of the King an Order for the ſetting atLiberty the ſixPerſons who were lately committed Priſoners to the Baſtile and at Vincennes, for giving in a Proteſtation to the Parliament of Paris, againſt any Deciſion of the late Diſpute between the lawful and legitimated Princes otherwiſe than by an Aſſembly of the States of the Kingdom, they were releaſed laſt Week. The Duke of Chatillon, the Count de Chiverny, and the Marquis of Beringhen, fetched them from the Priſons, and carried them to the Duke of Chartres,who introducing them to the Regent, they made an Apology in very ſubmiſſive Terms for what they had done, and were diſmiſſed with Expreſſions of Favour. Some Diſpute having riſen about the Honours to be allowed at Court to the Prince of Dombes and the Count d'Eu, ſince the regiſtring the King's Edict in Parliament on the 6th Inſtant, the Regent has decided, that whereas by that Edict they are debarred from thoſe Honours only which they held in the Parliament, they ſhall keep Poſſeſſion of all others. The Counteſs of Stairs arrived here on the 21ſt Inſtant. We have Advice, that on the 12th Inſtant the Pope held a Conſiſtory, in which he made a Promotion of two Cardinals, one of which he declared to be the Abbot Alberoni, the Duke of Parma's Envoy at the Court of Spain; the Name of the other he reſerves in Petto.
